

One Love Hackney: A week of civic pride 9 – 15 September 2007

Experience the many faiths and cultures that comprise Hackney's diversity at the Peace Week walk and festival which takes place in Clissold Park on Sunday, 9 September. See some of Hackney's top talent from across the borough including Jamakabi, MC Shizzle and Alizey.co.uk, West African dance, Turkish saz and Ethiopian drumming. This is one festival not to be missed with music from Bobby Kray, Nathan, Tiny Temper, J'Amore, Naomi McLernon, and exclusive performances from Dhol Evolution and Flash Angels - Sony TV Bollywood UK Champions.

For more details see www.onelovehackney.com

This event is part of London's week of peace celebrations between 9 and 15 September 2007. We want to top our success last year, which saw Hackney host the largest peace week celebration in the capital. Ten thousand people attended the event in Shoreditch Park, which was run in partnership with Choice FM.

The day's activities start with a parade led by Hackney's community leaders from Gillett Square at 11am, arriving at Clissold Park by 12.30pm. There will be entertainment and refreshments at Gillett Square and along the route. Participants include Albion Kids Show, Community Centre for Refugees from Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia, Tohum Cultural Centre and fresh from Carnival will be Jamboulay Carnival Arts and Beeraahaar Sweet Combination Soca Mas Cultural Group.

HCVS, Hackney's leading voluntary and community sector support agency, are organising the event in partnership with Team Hackney. Team Hackney is Hackney's strategic partnership which is dedicated to improving the quality of life for everyone in the borough by bringing together the different parts of the public private, community and voluntary sectors.

For enquiries, please contact Gillian Trevethan on 020 7923 1962 or gillian@hcv.org.uk

24.08.2007